ChatGPT vs Claude — Comparison

I'm a Pakistani freelancer with 3 years of experience in video editing.

But honestly, getting good clients through social media hasn't been easy for me.

I'm now looking to connect with international clients who value quality work and are willing to pay fairly for professional video editing.

If you're a YouTuber, content creator, brand, or business looking for a reliable video editor, feel free to reach out.

Let's work together and create something great.

2. Personal Preferences Setup

I'm a Pakistani content creator and entrepreneur.

I create content in a mix of Urdu and English.

My audience mainly includes Pakistani and Indian freelancers between 18 and 30 years old.

My style should always feel conversational, real, and a little humorous. Avoid corporate or overly professional language.

Keep sentences short, simple, and punchy.

Whenever I ask for a script, write it in Roman Urdu and keep the English mix to a maximum of 25%.

3. Bad Prompt Example

Create a social media post about freelancing.

4. AIM Framework in Action

ROLE: Act as an expert LinkedIn copywriter who helps Pakistani freelancers grow their personal brand and attract well-paying international clients.

MY DETAILS: I'm a 24-year-old Pakistani freelancer with 3 years of video editing experience. Recently, I completed a video editing project for a UK-based YouTube channel with over 100K subscribers.

TARGET CLIENTS: International YouTubers and online course creators.

TASK: Write a social media post sharing this achievement in a genuine, humble, and relatable way. The post should also help me attract similar clients.

STYLE: Keep the language simple, conversational, and human. Avoid corporate or overly professional wording.

ENDING: Finish the post with an engaging question that encourages people to comment.

5. AIM Framework Template

ROLE: Act as an expert in Complete Step-by-Step Video Editing Secrets.

MY DETAILS: I'm a YouTuber from Pakistan with 7 years of experience in video editing.

TARGET AUDIENCE: Content creators.

TASK: Write a social media post about video editing.

6. Artifacts Live Demo — ROI YouTube Earning Calculator

Create a simple and interactive ROI YouTube Earning calculator for freelancers worldwide.

The calculator should include:

- Weekly hours saved by using Claude
- Freelancer's hourly rate in PKR and USD
- Monthly time saved
- Monthly value of the saved time in both PKR and USD

Make the calculator interactive and easy to use.

Use a clean, modern design with a black and orange color scheme.
